THE CENTER OF THE ONE HEART

The Center of the One Heart is a Virginia non-profit corporation offering support and network services for teachers, healers, artists and spiritual seekers in the Greater Central Virginia area. The impetus for The Center of the One Heart came on May 19th, 2000, through a core group of twenty-eight enthusiasts. One Heart, on a rhythmic basis, sponsors periodic gatherings where together we can create powerful, fun-filled and transformative heart-filled environments. In that space, we are able to tap the high-speed intuitive heart intelligence of the Unified Presence. These gatherings offer a powerful opportunity to come together in our collective heart and to tap the power of love in action, divine synchronicity, infinite intelligence, and the powerful connectivity that comes from awakening and moving into our deepest encoding and purposes for being on the earth.

All talks are from 6:30 -7:30, followed by a Q&A period
Thursday April 5th, 6:30 pm
John Oliver
Topic: Channeling, Mediumship, and Spirit Contact

About this Talk:
John Oliver one of America's Premiere Psychic Consultants and Spiritual teachers!
During John's childhood, he showed great promise of psychic skills and abilities. As early as age five, his talents came to fruition when he began seeing spirits of people who had 'crossed-over'. To most, the very idea of seeing an apparition would seem frightening, but it became a regular experience in his life. He was also able to pick up distinct impressions from antiques, and old furniture, with regard to their history and previous owners. He could sense energetic vibrations and auras, not only around people and animals, but objects as well.
As a teenager, John's psychic abilities continued to develop and he began doing startling readings for classmates and family members that proved to be astoundingly full of precise details. Soon word spread throughout his community and before long he was contacted by law enforcement and private detectives to assist in unsolved cases. Toward the end his high school years, he was invited to guest lecture at several local metaphysical organizations, and in time, many throughout the state of Virginia began to hear about an incredible young and talented John Oliver. Come and enjoy this riveting talk, and hear John's many stories, and sharing's on Mediumship!

Bio:
John J Oliver is a spiritual teacher and psychic consultant. John teaches people from all over the world about the subjects of meditation, consciousness, mysticism, wisdom school traditions and intuitive development. John has meditated regularly and deeply since the age of 16 and actively helps others to access an awake life, higher consciousness and to align to their soul's purpose on earth. John is committed to teaching others to think clearly, to meditate more deeply, to exercise more consciously and to love life more passionately. A huge part of John's teaching is about education and service. John is involved with many non-profits, including the Baby Girl Project, Joyful Orange and the Tibetan Village Project.

Thursday April 19th, 6:30 pm Terry Atwater
Topic: A Course In Miracles ‘why it is a required course’

About this Talk:
I will be sharing the basic principles of one of the most dynamic teaching aids for spiritual awareness in the world today. Published in over twelve different languages, its metaphysical wisdom and practical applications are universal. The presentation will cover the theory and the thought system of ACIM and how millions are applying it to transform their perception of themselves and the world around them. There will be time afterward for comments as well as questions and answers.

Terry Atwater

Bio:
Terry Atwater is an area account manager for the Virginia Blood Services, a local non profit community blood centre serving over 21 hospitals in Central Virginia. A graduate from Hampton University, Terry’s experience prior to VBS included an extensive background in broadcasting, marketing and media relations. Terry is a certified mediation specialist, a popular public speaker and a ministerial assistant at Unity Church of Charlottesville. He is president of the foundation for the study and application of ‘A Course in Miracles’, a non profit organization devoted to self realization and personal empowerment. When he is not busy recruiting blood donors, his interests include health and fitness, theatre and the martial arts. Terry and his wife, author P.M.H. Atwater, live in Charlottesville where they have been happily married for 35 years.

PMH Atwater PMH Atwater, L.H.D., Ph.D. (Hon.)
Topic: Dying to Know You
‘proof of God in the near death experience
words/wisdom drawings of over 4000 adults and children’
About this Talk:
Dying to know you is like no other talk that PHM has delivered on near death experiences.
In this this very unique program, P.M.H., embraces the collective voice, and the sum of the many. She has dedicated nearly four decades of listening, and carefully noting what over 4,000 child and adult near death experiencers have shared, what they said, heard, felt, and suddenly, absolutely knew, is shared. PMH shares forty drawings from adult and child experiencers in six countries, what they saw when they died, accompanies the talk. PMH also reveals insights on ‘our mission’, and why we are here.

P.M.H Atwater, L.H.D., Ph.D. (Hon.)

Bio:
An international authority on near-death states, Dr. PMH Atwater, L.H.D. uses the culmination of her research to establish that the near-death phenomenon is not some kind of anomaly, but is rather part of the larger genre of transformations of consciousness. She combines her 38 years of near-death research with what she was doing in the 60s and 70s, experiencing, experimenting with, and researching altered states of consciousness, mysticism, psychic phenomena, and the transformational process, to reveal what transformations of consciousness really are, why we have them, and where they lead us. This lifetime endeavor covers over 43 years of work, involving nearly 7,000 people. Her meticulous and unique protocol gives validity to what she has discovered, and verified, about the percentage worldwide of people who have undergone near-death experiences.

Pamela Perkins Donnelly
Topic: Expanding Awareness
‘seeing beyond habitual thought patterns’

About this Talk:
Do you long to tolerate a perceived dissonance of another person’s way of being with authentic grace and dignity for all concerned: yourself, the Other, and whoever else might be in the room witnessing? When you can see beyond your habitual thought patterns, this kind of grace is possible! As soon as you can flex in the direction of something you have previously considered “Not Me” or “Not Mine,” well, then you arrive on the playing field of compassion. And if you also make friends with your own blind spots, or habitual thought patterns, then longer and longer cycles of present awareness may arise, in you! The four polar dichotomies of the Myers-Briggs Temperament Indicator (MBTI), are one of many road maps that help you do just that. Join Pamela Perkins Donnelly for some interactive breaking-stereotype fun with Introverts, Extraverts, Thinkers and Feelers, as it relates to seeing beyond habitual thought patterns.

Pamela Perkins Donnelly

Bio
Pamela Perkins Donnelly is totally fascinated by “the human condition,” the complexities of personality, how we express ourselves, who we are becoming, and the ruts we end up in along the way. We all get stuck sometimes. It’s true. She personally knows the cancer battle dance, family fallout from death, and the inarguable facts of aging. After years of experiencing these mysteries and setbacks, she has learned how to use the lens of curiosity to reengage in joyous living.

At Grounded Relating, she helps people explore themselves and their interactions with others. She uses frameworks such as the Myers-Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI) and the Enneagram to chart personal behaviors and patterns of interpersonal interaction as they relate to friendships, health crises, marriage, business relationships and all the other little mysteries of daily living. When approached from the perspective of curiosity, and focused on the roots of the behaviors, these tools can offer a context that will prevent misunderstandings, promote joyous interactions, and restore your energy in living daily life.

Circle of Leadership 2018

2018 LEADERSHIP ANNOUNCED

At the December 16, 2017 Center of the One Heart Holiday Gathering and Annual Members Meeting the Circle of Leadership for the Center of the One Heart was elected for the calendar year 2018: Terry Atwater; Sandra Grace Brooks; Connie Flaugher; Pat Flaugher; Linda Heeschen; Jim Jacenich; Lisa Jacenich; Dan Johnson; Jennifer Lynn Smith; and David VanDerVeer. The members expressed appreciation to outgoing circle members Nicholas Lasky, Fred Oesch, and Elaine Parke.

At its first circle of leadership meeting on January 13, 2018, the newly elected circle elected the following slate of officers for 2018: Sam Spicher, President; Kim Johnson, First Vice President; Kevin Morrison, Second Vice President; Richard Dulaney, Secretary; Marge Thompson, Assistant Secretary; and Arisun Wonderli, Treasurer

The circle of leadership also appointed these additional members to the Center of the One Heart operational team for 2018: Elly Appel, Cameron Beers, Shona Bellew, Diana Bullington, Geoffrey Bullington, Deborra Cameron, Pamela Donnelly, Linda Heeschen, Devi Herrsche, Shallel Ken Inglima, Ki Johnson, Kamakshi Brittney Johnson, Nicholas Lasky, Margaretta McIlvaine, Amy M. McKenzie, Pat O’Hanlon, John J. Oliver, Iela Denise Tynan, and Garry Wallace.
We have several exciting occurrences happening for USP at this time. The most impactful for the world is USP’s Museum Committee’s search for an appropriate location to consider bringing back out the Russell Museum, after 20 years of leaving Swannanoa in 1998. At present, a large building in downtown Waynesboro, Va. is being considered for purchase by the USP Board. If purchased, the Russell works (mostly Walter Russell’s from Carnegie Hall) would be taken out of monthly storage, cleaned, and set up by the Committee for a much-anticipated Gala Opening and Benefit. Stay tuned for further developments this year!

We also welcome 2 new additions to the USP Campus. Novalei Frances Boyer was born Feb. 3rd to our Afton campus 1-yr. residents and Russell enthusiasts, Jeremy and Adrianne Boyer. The little mountain baby joins big sister Emma (4) and protective brother Blaine (2).

Along with this newcomer, author and artist Airisun Wonderli will be joining the campus team by May 1 in the brick home next to neighbor and Shipping Manager, Cindy Lewis. Airisun is the author of the historical centennial book on Swannanoa published in 2013 and is presently working on the quintessential Art book on Walter Russell. She has already begun her year in March with a Swannanoa lecture for the area, and is also open for Russell lectures. She begins her seventh year working at Swannanoa, 3 years as a Tour Guide along with Sandi Dulaney. She is also heading up the committee for the Swannanoa Fall Mixer Day for Sept. 15th, so please contact her for involvement in that special day. Contact may change soon due to moving; will inform.

WHAT IS THE BLUE POT?

The events mentioned in this Newsletter, are offered freely from the Heart. The Blue Pot is a way for all of us, to let our hearts speak and say ‘Thank You’ to the organizing team for their efforts to make all of this happen and support them towards the costs of printing, and advertising. Please unlock the Secret of Abundance for yourself by giving to life, work and events of the Center of the One Heart. Your giving will be re-given through increasing abundance in all aspects of your life!

This is a Grecian Goddess holding a Blue Pot in her hands pouring golden water unto the Earth. Golden water symbolizes money expressing love and care. It heals the wounds of people and planet. The Blue Pot symbolizes the cauldron of the Earth in which we transform our use of money. That Golden Water may flow and express our care!
A Final Note Of Thanks!

With heartfelt appreciation for you and your individual path on Earth at this time, we cordially invite you to participate in events and gatherings throughout 2018 for the Center of the One Heart.

We hope to see you and your friends at our lecture series, at the Spring Fling at The White Lotus Eco Spa, and Our Christmas Gathering party. Other events will be mentioned in our fall newsletter!
